

homecoming '78

we boogied to Milestone on november 4 at the homecoming of '78 . . .
the senior class sponsored it . . . our theme was "reminiscing", sung by Brad Gua at the assembly . . .

Queen Tami Beal and her court along with their dads got drenched at the homecoming game . . .

we rode in antique cars . . . colors chosen were forest green and silver . . . alumni queen Kristen McKenney attended the dance along with many other alumni . . . we entered the cafeteria at 8 and danced until 11 . . . the picture lines were long as usual . . . royalty had a solo dance . . . we bought tickets for $7.50 at lunch or at the door . . . refreshments included cookies, cakes and punch . . . after the dance everyone went to their favorite restaurants . . . a few got lost trying to find the place where they had reservations, such as "The Cliff House" . . . everyone had fun and it was a night we will reminisce about

Dru Jordan pauses for a moment before announcing the queen's name.

Above: Senior Princess Linda White smiles as Mr. Zerenbergen places her crown. Right: Senior Princess Brenda Morphis hangs on to her dad during the half time presentation.