

we showed much effort and spirit during the season . . . won the first game against Fife . . . ushers club kept us straight with the programs . . . Diane Neher, Jennifer Parry, Taree Laurin, Denise Cimmer and Debbie Palmer kept statistics . . . many injuries . . . captain Brion Boyce . . . won a cold and wet homecoming game against Glacier on november 3 . . . royalty carried umbrellas during halftime ceremonies . . . hot chocolate and hotdogs always kept us warm . . . manager Dave Ishii and trainers Bert Oxborrow, Wes Robinson and Gary Nelson encouraged us . . . new coach, Dave Mattson . . . at the end, team was disappointed in record but they're still No. 1 in our eyes . . .

close game lost to Tahoma . . . Mr. Frank, jv coach . . . necessity of jv game for game time and experience . . . most inspirational, Jerry Stewart, and most improved, Mark Urrutia

Above right: A concerned Coach Mattson checks to see how badly Brion Boyce (32) is injured. Right: Coach Dave Mattson and Dave Kaayk (85) are determined as they watch the offense gain yardage towards a first down. Below: Totem offense: front, Dan Haynes (87), Jerry Stewart (80), Ralph Wilson (70), Randy Ferguson (55), Hal Westbrook (54), Ken Allread (52), Milo Undlin (71), Mike Byquist (82); middle, Dave Kaayk (85), Brion Boyce (32), Bob Wagner (12), Brad Burton (20), Sean McCabe (33); back, Jeff Crosby (10), Ty Beal (13), Craig Vanden Bos (63), Gordon Oyer (56), Glenn Calderon (44), Mark Rooks (35), Frank Roppo (14), Coach Larry Fortban.

