

we had many close games . . . Diane Neher, voted most valuable team member, broke her ankle at the Bainbridge game . . . captain Sue Elmore received most inspirational because of her encouragement of teammates and her great ability to jump and yell along with others . . .

many sophs on varsity . . .

outstanding game won against 3rd place Enumclaw . . . with all the hard work and effort Sharon Murray put forth, she deserved the award of most improved . . . Miss L., varsity coach . . . Lisa Wagner, next year's captain, served 10 consecutive points against White River . . . jv new this year with Mr. Scott as coach

Captain Sue Elmore keeps her eye on the ball and continues to be one of the most consistent servers on the team.

	jv scoreboard
	first match		second match
	Opp	Tyce	Opp	Tyce
Fife	2	0	2	0
Foster	1	2	0	2
Glacier	2	0	1	2
Mt. St.	2	1	2	0
Peninsula	2	1	1	2
Tahoma	2	0	2	0
White River	2	0	2	0
Bainbridge	2	1	2	1
Enumclaw	2	0	2	0

Above: Junior Andrea Smith maneuvers into position to bump up a cross court spike. Right: Intense concentration shows on the faces of Lisa Wagner, Coach Kaya Lietvietis, Chris Blackman, and Gail Stoll as they give their mental support from the bench.

	varsity scoreboard
	first match		second match
	Opp	Tyce	Opp	Tyce
Fife	2	2	2	2
Foster	2	2	2	2
Glacier	2	0	2	2
Mt. St.	0	2	1	1
Peninsula	2	2	0	1
Tahoma	2	0	2	2
White River	2	0	2	0
Bainbridge	2	2	2	2
Enumclaw	2	1	2	1

